Catholic Social Teaching Corner

Sept. 21-22 – 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Christ reminds us, "Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me." Considering the various justice issues that affect children in our country — particularly the children of immigrants and the marginalized and the unborn — we must stand up for their rights as they possess an inherent dignity deserving the basic necessities to grow up as joyful children of God.

Septiembre 21-22 - Vigésimo Quinto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Cristo nos recuerda que "el que recibe a un niño como éste en mi nombre, me recibe a mí". Considerando los distintos temas que afectan a los niños en nuestro país -particularmente a los niños de los inmigrantes, los marginados y los no-natos- debemos alzarlos por sus derechos ya que ellos poseen una dignidad inherente y merecen cubrir sus necesidades básicas para crecer como hijos gozosos de Dios.

A Message from Bishop Vásquez

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Our Catholic tradition teaches that human dignity is respected and a strong community is maintained only if our human rights are protected, and our responsibilities are met. Our responsibilities include advocating for the common good and helping the poor and vulnerable who cannot advocate for themselves. One of the most powerful ways to participate in our democracy is to vote in our local, state and national elections. The Catholic Church does not tell the faithful for whom or for what party to vote, instead the faithful are to form their consciences in accordance with God's truth.

As we prepare to cast our votes, we must pray for God's guidance and study sacred Scripture, church teaching and Catholic social teaching (<https://austindiocese.org/catholic-social-teaching>). Then we must learn about the candidates and the issues at stake in each election. Only then will we have fulfilled our civic responsibility as we cast our ballots on election day.

Mensaje del Obispo Vásquez

Nuestra tradición Católica nos enseña que la dignidad humana es respetada y una comunidad fuerte se mantiene solo si los derechos humanos son protegidos, y nuestras responsabilidades son cumplidas. Cada persona, sin importar su edad, sus antecedentes, cultura o estatus económico, merece ser tratada con decencia y respeto. Nuestras responsabilidades incluyen intervenir por el bien común y ayudar a los pobres y a los vulnerables que no pueden intervenir por sí mismos. Una de las maneras más poderosas de participar en nuestra democracia es votar en nuestras elecciones locales, estatales y nacionales. La Iglesia Católica no dice a los fieles por quién o por qué partido votar, en su lugar, los fieles formarán sus conciencias de acuerdo a la verdad de Dios.

Mientras nos preparamos para votar, debemos orar por obtener la guía de Dios y estudiar la sagrada escritura, la enseñanza de la iglesia y la enseñanza social Católica (<https://austindiocese.org/catholic-social-teaching>). Entonces debemos aprender más sobre los candidatos y los temas en juego en cada elección. Solo entonces habremos cumplido nuestra responsabilidad cívica cuando votemos el día de la elección.

Jesus, Friend of a lonely heart

Jesus, Friend of a lonely heart; You are my haven; You are my peace. You are my salvation; You are my serenity in moments of struggle and amidst an ocean of doubts. You are the bright ray that lights up the path of my life. You are everything to a lonely soul. You understand the soul even though it remains silent. You know our weaknesses, and, like a good physician, You comfort and heal, sparing us sufferings — expert that You are. (Diary 247)

Jesús, amigo de un corazón solitario

Jesús, Amigo de un corazón solitario; Tú eres mi refugio; Tú eres mi paz. Tú eres mi salvación; Eres mi serenidad en momentos de lucha y en medio de un océano de dudas. Eres el rayo luminoso que ilumina el camino de mi vida. Eres todo para un alma solitaria. Comprendes el alma aunque permanezca en silencio. Tú conoces nuestras debilidades y, como un buen médico, nos consuelas y curas, ahorrándonos sufrimientos, por muy experto que seas. (Diario 247)

A Year of EUCCHARISTIC SAINTS

St. PETER JULIAN EYMARD

Feast Day: August 2

Patron Saint of: Eucharistic Devotion

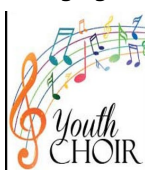

The Congregation of the Priests of the Most Blessed Sacrament and the Servants of the Blessed Sacrament, an order of sisters, both devoted themselves to perpetual adoration. St. Peter Julian's emphasis on the real, corporeal and physical presence of the living Christ in the Blessed Sacrament was often met with widespread opposition, especially among priests of his own day. But he contributed to a major development of doctrine in understanding the reality of Christ's Eucharistic presence now on earth. His published writings are now popularly printed in small paperback volumes.

La Congregación de los Sacerdotes del Santísimo Sacramento y las Siervas del Santísimo Sacramento, una orden de hermanas, se dedicaron a la adoración perpetua. El énfasis de San Pedro Julián en la presencia real, corpórea y física de Cristo vivo en el Santísimo Sacramento a menudo se encontró con una oposición generalizada, especialmente entre los sacerdotes de su época. Pero contribuyó a un importante desarrollo de la doctrina en la comprensión de la realidad de la presencia eucarística de Cristo ahora en la tierra. Sus escritos publicados ahora se imprimen popularmente en pequeños volúmenes de bolsillo.
