Holy Communion

"Eternal life must begin already here on earth through Holy Communion. Each Holy Communion makes you more capable of communing with God throughout eternity".

And so, my King, I do not ask You for anything, although I know that You can give me everything. I ask You for one thing only: remain forever the King of my heart; that is enough for me. (Diary 1811)

Comunión

"La vida eterna debe comenzar ya aquí en la tierra a través de la Santa Comunión. Cada Santa Comunión te hace más capaz de comulgar con Dios por toda la eternidad". Y así, mi Rey, no te pido nada, aunque sé que puedes darme todo. Solo te pido una cosa: que sigas siendo para siempre el Rey de mi corazón; Eso es suficiente para mí.

(Diario 1811)

What is a Christmas Posada?

Posadas are a Mexican Christmas tradition that celebrates the biblical story of the 9-day journey Joseph and Mary made to find a place to stay in Bethlehem. The posadas begin on December 16 and end on the 24 on Christmas Eve. Posada means in Spanish “shelter” or “inn”.

The celebration is a reminder of the importance of offering shelter and hospitality to those in need.

Christmas posadas are made up of several traditions, the most important being "pedir posada" (asking for posada), where the night Joseph and Mary stayed in the stable and baby Jesus
