June 6-7, The Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ

This Sunday we celebrate the gift of the Body and Blood of Christ, which gives us life! In the Eucharist we share that taste of heaven; that glorious banquet of the kingdom, which is Christ's promise to us. But this share of heaven calls us to a way of being that reflects heaven – a life of generous self-sacrificing love. How will we express the love of Christ that has been given so generously to us?

Junio 6-7, La Solemnidad del Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo

Este domingo celebramos el regalo del Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo ¡los cuales nos dan vida! En la Eucaristía compartimos una probada del cielo; ese glorioso banquete del reino, que es la promesa de Cristo hacia nosotros. Pero esta probada de cielo nos invita a una manera de ser que refleje al cielo – una vida de un generoso amor que se sacrifica a si mismo. ¿Cómo expresaremos el amor de Cristo que se nos ha dado tan generosamente a nosotros?

The Joy That Leads Souls to God

On another occasion, the instruction I received was this:

"Act in such a way that all those who come in contact with you will go away joyful. Sow happiness about you because you have received much from God; give, then, generously to others. They should take leave of you with their hearts filled with joy, even if they have no more than touched the hem of your garment. Keep well in mind the words I am telling you right now."

(Diary, 55)

If your child is in the second grade, or higher, and has been baptized, they are invited and

Si tu hijo está en segundo curso, o superior, y ha sido bautizado, se le invita y se le anima encarecidamente a convertirse en monaguillo. Si te interesa, por favor pasa o llama a la oficina de la iglesia.

250 Hours of Adoration

United States
Conference of Catholic Bishops

250 Hours of Adoration during the 250th Anniversary of America

As the United States of America commemorates the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence in 2026, the U.S. bishops will consecrate the country to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. All Catholics are encouraged to join the bishops in praying for the unity and healing of our country.

One opportunity for parishes and individuals to participate is by contributing to a collective 250 Hours of Adoration and 250 Works of Mercy. This resource provides examples for 250 Hours of Adoration, and guidance for 250 Works of Mercy is on the reverse side of this resource.

In his encyclical, Dilexit nos, Pope Francis instructs us to “nourish our lives with the strength of the Eucharist” in Holy Communion and Adoration, so that we might understand Christ’s love for all more deeply and live out this love ourselves. Our contemplation of the Sacred Heart leads us deeper into the mystery of our salvation and deeper into our love for Christ found in the faces of our sisters and brothers—especially those most in need.

How to Participate

Parishes can participate in 250 hours of adoration together by offering a Holy Hour on a weekly or monthly basis leading up to the July 4 anniversary. Parishes and communities can decide how best to set up their holy hours, continue current practices, or invite new people to join. While 250 hours seems like a lot, each person present constitutes an hour prayed. Parishes and communities can also consider how to incorporate both the 250 Works of Mercy alongside the 250 Hours of Adoration. Afterwards, report your community’s participation here.

Resources for Holy Hour include:

- Holy Hour for Life
- Holy Hour for Peace
- Holy Hour for Life, Marriage, and Religious Liberty
- Holy Hour for Vocations
- Holy Hour Against Racism
- Sacred Heart Holy Hour

Consider hosting a holy hour or series of holy hours at your parish using the templates provided above. You may have other ways to invite members of your community to spend some time in prayer for our country with Jesus truly present in the Blessed Sacrament. To prepare for the Consecration of the United States to the Sacred Heart, parishes can also incorporate the Litany of the Sacred Heart of Jesus into their Holy Hour.

The seven Corporal Works of Mercy come to us directly from the Scriptures in the Gospel of Matthew. Rooted in our lives of faith, the actions that Jesus calls us to in feeding the hungry, giving drink to the thirsty, sheltering the homeless, visiting the sick and imprisoned, burying the dead, and giving alms are central elements of our Catholic identity. Pope Leo XIV instructs in Dilexi te, "As we contemplate Christ's love, 'we too are inspired to be more attentive to the sufferings and needs of others, and confirmed in our efforts to share in his work of liberation as instruments for the spread of his love'" (no. 2).

How to Participate

Individuals and groups can participate in 250 Works of Mercy by engaging in the existing activities and efforts of their parishes, getting involved in new ways, and by participating with local and national organizations on a weekly or monthly basis leading up to the July 4th anniversary. Our works of mercy draw from the deep well of our faith and prayer, constantly reminding us that in tending to our brothers and sisters, we tend to Christ himself. Afterwards, report your community's participation here.

These works of mercy could take a variety of shapes, such as:

- Assisting women who face a crisis pregnancy
- Donating to food pantries and clothing closets
- Participating in a community beautification program
- Raising money for an overseas development project
- Sponsoring a refugee family
- Tutoring children
- Volunteering at homeless shelters

EIM COMPLIANCE INFORMATION (updated Dec. 15, 2025)

The mission of the Diocese of Austin's Ethics and Integrity in Ministry (EIM) program is to help protect people from abuse and unethical behavior through education, action, and reporting, and to listen to and learn from those who have experienced abuse to provide healing. Visite austindiocese.org/eim para aprender más sobre las políticas y procedimientos de EIM y cómo estos ayudan a mantener nuestras parroquias y escuelas más seguras para todos. Comuníquese con el administrador del sitio EIM de su parroquia o escuela, o con eim@austindiocese.org, para obtener ayuda adicional.
